

PARTIES + PRESS RELEASES

CONTRIBUTOR GUIDELINES:

Thank you for your interest in becoming a contributor for Parties + Press Releases. Please go over and take into consideration the guidelines and standards we ask of our contributors.

By submitting your first post, you acknowledge and agree to abide by the following:

- I. We reserve the right to edit all content. This includes, but is not limited to, grammar, punctuation, consistency with our brand identity, readability, and the shortening of content to fit word limits. If major edits need to be made, we will send a proof to you. This is as much about making you look good as it is about making us look good.
- II. Before you begin writing, your topic will need approval. All of our content falls under public relations, marketing, advertising, event planning or is rooted in business. To have your topic approved, email us at partiesandpressreleases@gmail.com
- III. Content must be submitted by deadline. Deadlines will be a week from the day your topic is approved. If you need longer, ask. We are nice gals and will most likely be willing to work with you. We are all busy, we understand!
- IV. As already stated, we are all busy, including our audiences. This means they need to be able to read your content while they are grabbing coffee, on their lunch break, etc. With that said, please keep your posts no longer than 500 words.
